

Rodeo Hall of Fame Application for Nomination

The Rodeo Historical Society (RHS) is a support group of the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum that helps in its mission to preserve the history of rodeo. The Rodeo Hall of Fame is dedicated to honoring and memorializing the great performers in rodeo and its related professions. Induction into this prestigious hall of fame is one of the highest honors that can be bestowed on an honoree.

The RHS Board of Directors reviews each applicant thoroughly and annually selects a slate of nominees. RHS members vote by secret ballot to determine inductees into the Rodeo Hall of Fame, which are held each October. Applications must be received at the National Cowboy Museum by December 31, to be considered for the coming year's nomination slate. Applications will be held and considered for three years. After this time, the application will be returned to the submitter. Returned applications may be resubmitted updates and additional materials.

Application Procedure

Applications must have the following:

- Letter of Nomination (submit at least one letter)
- A detailed biography, including rodeo accomplishments
- Completed Application Form. Be as detailed as possible
- A minimum of two photographs. These will be scanned and returned
- Applicant must be at least 50 years of age

Incomplete applications will be returned and not considered for nomination. Be as detailed as possible. Use the following criteria as a guide when completing your application materials: Affiliation (RCA/PRCA, WRPA/GRA, etc.); significant participation in rodeo on the national level; training of others; respected by peers; character; giving back to rodeo; war service; projects the image of living "The Western Way." Attach additional pages as needed.
